STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2011 No. 17.

The Access to Information Regulations, 2011.

(Made under section 47 of the Access to Information Act, 2005, Act No. 5 of 2005)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred on the Minister responsible for Information by section 47 of the Access to Information Act, 2005, these Regulations are made this 10th day of March, 2011.

PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. Title

These Regulations may be cited as the Access to Information Regulations, 2011.

2. Interpretation

In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires-

“Act” means the Access to Information Act, 2005;

“authorised officer” includes a person who has been empowered to perform a function under these Regulations or to whom functions under the Regulations have been delegated;

“currency point” has the value assigned to it in Schedule 1;

“public body” includes a government ministry, department, statutory corporation, authority or commission;

“requester” means a person who has requested for access to a record from a public body under these Regulations.

PART II—ACCESS TO RECORDS

3. Request

(1) A request for access to a record shall be in Form 1 set out in Schedule 2.

(2) A public body may provide the form referred to in sub-regulation (1) in electronic format.

(3) The form referred to in sub-regulation (1), shall be obtained from the public body which is in possession of the record to which a person is seeking access.

(4) The request shall contain a sufficient description of the record to which a person is requesting access.

(5) Where the request does not contain a sufficient description of the record, the information officer shall require the person requesting, to provide further details so as to facilitate disclosure of the record.

(6) Where the requester is unable to provide the details requested in sub-regulation (4), the information officer or an authorised officer shall, so far as possible, assist the requester to provide the necessary details.

(7) Where the requester shows sufficient reason for failing to submit the request in the prescribed form and provides an oral request, the oral request shall be reduced into writing by the information officer or an authorised officer at the expense of the requester.

(8) The information officer shall not refuse to grant a request for access to record based solely on the ground that the request was not in the prescribed form.

(9) For purposes of sub-regulation (7), sufficient reason includes illiteracy or disability.

4. Electronic requests

(1) Where practicable, the requester may send the request for a record by email or in other electronic form.

(2) Where the request for a record is made in electronic form, the information officer shall print and file the request.

5. Failure to provide record in electronic form

Where a public body cannot provide access to a record in electronic form—

- (a) the information officer shall give reasons why the record could not be availed in electronic form; and
- (b) the record shall be provided in a format in which it can be utilised by the person requesting it.

6. Format of record

(1) Where access to a record involves giving a copy of the record to the requester, the copy need not be provided in the requested format if—

- (a) the record does not exist in that format within the public body; and
- (b) the head of the public body considers, taking into account the factors described in sub-regulation (3), that the conversion of the record into the requested format is unreasonable.

(2) Where the head of the public body considers that the conversion of the record into the requested format is unreasonable, a copy of the record shall be provided in an alternative format chosen by the requester—

- (a) from a format in which the record already exists within the public body; or
- (b) from a format, the conversion to which the head of the public body considers is reasonable taking into account the factors described in sub-regulation (3).

(3) The following factors shall be taken into account in determining if the conversion of a document into the requested format is reasonable—

- (a) the cost to the public body;
- (b) the potential degradation of the record;
- (c) if the requester is to be given access to only a part of a record, the facility with which the record may be severed in the format requested;

- (d) the existence of the record within the public body in another format that is useful to the requester;
- (e) the possibility that the record can be converted to another format that is useful to the requester;
- (f) the impact of the conversion on the operations of the public body;
- (g) the availability of the required personnel, and resources, and
- (h) the availability of the necessary technology and equipment.

7. Access fee

(1) The requester shall pay a non refundable access fee set out in Schedule 3 when requesting for a record from a public body.

(2) Upon receipt of the access fee, the information officer shall issue to the requester a signed and stamped acknowledgement slip in Form 2 set out in schedule 2.

(3) Where the information requested for is in the public interest or where the disclosure of the information is likely to benefit a large section of the public, the prescribed access fee shall be waived.

8. Acknowledgement of receipt

(1) The information officer, to whom a request is made, shall acknowledge receipt of the request by signing a copy of the request.

(2) The information officer shall deal with the request for access to a record without undue delay.

9. Limitation on production of record

(1) Where a record does not exist but can be produced from a machine readable record under the control of a government institution, the record need not be produced if the production of the document would unreasonably interfere with the operations of the public body.

(2) Where a person is granted access to a record, the head of the public body which has control of the record shall, where necessary, inform the person—

- (a) that the record may be examined by that person in order to save the cost of reproduction of the record;

- (b) that the person may specify that he or she requires only certain parts of the record to be reproduced;
- (c) of any amount required to be paid as a deposit before the search or production of the record is undertaken or the record is prepared for disclosure;
- (d) of the estimated total cost of the search for the record and preparation of the record for disclosure; and
- (e) of any amount required to be paid before access is given to the record including the cost of production or reproduction.

10. Retrieval and reproduction costs

(1) The requester shall pay to the relevant public body the cost for retrieval and reproduction of the record.

(2) The retrieval and reproduction costs are set out in Schedule 3.

11. Reproduction of record

(1) The record requested for shall be reproduced using the equipment of the public body.

(2) Where the public body does not have the necessary equipment, the requester may request the information officer or an authorised officer to have the record reproduced using the requester's equipment.

(3) A person who wants to use his or her own equipment to make a copy of the record shall apply to the information officer in Form 3 set out in Schedule 2.

(4) The equipment to be used under sub-regulation (3) to reproduce a record shall be subject to approval by the information officer or an authorised officer.

(5) The information officer or an authorised officer shall, after inspecting the equipment, if satisfied with the equipment, issue a certificate of approval in Form 4 set out in Schedule 2 certifying that the equipment is fit for the purpose.

(6) The record may be copied in the premises of the person who requested to use his or her own equipment under the supervision of the information officer or an authorised officer where approval is given by the information officer.

(7) Where the record is reproduced using the equipment of the requester, the reproduction fee shall be waived.

12. Transfer of request

(1) Where the request for access is transferred to another public body, the information officer shall issue to the requester a notice in Form 5 set out in Schedule 2.

(2) A request that has been transferred under sub-regulation (1) shall not be transferred to a third public body.

13. Acknowledgement of receipt of transferred request

Where a request is transferred under section 13, the information officer in the public body to which the request was transferred shall issue to the requester an acknowledgement of receipt in Form 6 set out in Schedule 2.

14. Records that cannot be found or do exist

Where a request for access is made for a record that cannot be found or does not exist, the information officer shall issue to the requester a notice in Form 7 set out in Schedule 2.

15. Deferral of access

Where the information officer defers access to a document or a record for a specified period, the information officer shall issue to the requester a notice in Form 8 set out in Schedule 2.

16. Grant of access to a record

(1) Where access to a record is granted, the information officer shall issue to the requester a notice in Form 9 set out in Schedule 2 to notify him or her of the decision to grant access.

(2) Where the information officer grants partial access to a record, he or she shall state on the form that the requester has only been granted partial access and he or she shall state the reasons for denying access to part of the record.

17. Denial of access to a record

Where access to a record is denied, the information officer shall issue to the requester a notice in Form 10 set out in Schedule 2 to notify him or her of the denial.

18. Extension of period

The information officer to whom a request for access to a record has been transferred shall issue to the requester a notice in Form 11 set out in Schedule 2 informing him or her of the extension of the period in accordance with Section 17 of the Act.

19. Notice to parties

An information officer who intends to grant access to a record referred to in Section 35 of the Act shall issue a notice to the third party in Form 12 set out in Schedule 2, informing the third party of the intended grant of access.

20. Consent by third party

(1) A third party to whom notice is given under regulation 19 may consent to the disclosure of a record.

(2) A third party who consents to disclosure under sub-region (1) shall give the consent in writing to the information officer in Form 13 set out in Schedule 2.

(3) The information officer shall not refuse the consent merely on the ground that it is not in the prescribed form.

21. Representation by third party

(1) Where a third party is required to make a representation as to why a record should not be disclosed by the information officer, the third party shall make the representation in Form 14 set out in Schedule 2.

(2) The information officer shall not refuse the representations solely on the ground that the third party has not made them in the prescribed form.

22. Decision on representation by third party

Where an information officer intends to disclose a record to which access has been requested and a third party to whom notice is issued according to section 35 of the Act makes a representation to the information officer, the information officer shall give the third party notice of the decision in Form 15 set out in Schedule 2.
